FOREWORD

The Residents Handbook is provided for each resident at Penrose and Horwood Paiges Almshouses. It explains your responsibility as a resident and gives useful information about the charity, its general administration and management.

The Trustees of Barnstaple Municipal Charities hope that everyone will be happy at the almshouses. The almshouse is your home and every effort will be made to help you remain independent, free to choose your own lifestyle and able to benefit from the quiet enjoyment and dignity that the almshouses provide. The Trustees anticipate that you will appreciate the importance of everyone in the community respecting the wishes of others, allowing them their privacy if that is what they wish and ensuring that rumours and gossip are not allowed to develop.

The conditions set out in this handbook form part of your contract with Barnstaple Municipal Charities and supplement the rules and regulations given in your letter of appointment. You have signed your agreement to the specifications within the handbook when you accepted your appointment. As a resident it is anticipated that you will abide by the stipulations made in the handbook for your safety and the safety of others.

The handbook is regularly updated for the benefit of the residents and the Trustees to ensure that statutory legislation and methods of best practice are adopted regarding the efficient management and use of almshouses. Each new handbook issued supersedes the previous handbook forming the current conditions of residency.

Please keep your Handbook in a safe and accessible place. If you are in doubt about its meaning in any part, please ask the Charity Co-ordinator for an explanation.

HISTORY, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Origins of Barnstaple Municipal Charities

Prior to 1539 monasteries habitually provided succour for the poor and needy of the land. Dissolution of this by Henry VIII led to many town and communities shouldering the responsibility to look after their own local poor and needy. Individual town councillors and sometimes their wives establish charities bequeathing funds for almshouses and were noted for their patronage. This was the case for the almshouses in Litchdon Street and Church Lane in Barnstaple. The almshouses were built in the 1600's for occupation by poor folk of Barnstaple with the expectation that they attended church and upheld a strict Christian lifestyle.

In the 1800's the Charity Commission reviewed and oversaw the amalgamation of charities in the country. In 1837 it ordered that twenty eight Barnstaple charities including the almshouses be brought under a single controlling body called Barnstaple Municipal Charities. The new charity would be governed by an elected unpaid Board of Trustees. In addition to the management of the almshouses, the trustees administer a relief fund for either those in need or requiring support with apprenticeships and education.

Penrose Almshouses, Litchdon Street

John Penrose was born in 1575 in the hamlet of Fremington and was a successful cloth merchant. He became the Mayor of Barnstaple in 1620. On his death in 1624 he provided for the founding of the Penrose almshouses in Litchdon Street, Barnstaple which were completed in 1627. The importance of the heritage of these buildings is recognised by the Grade I & II listing.

Horwood/Paiges, Church Lane

The almshouses in Church Lane known as Horwood Paiges were built in stages between 1629 and 1665. The Mayor of Barnstaple - Thomas Horwood, together with the wife of Gilbert Paige and business man Thomas Harris provided funds to build initially four almshouses. Later Alice Horwood (wife of Thomas Horwood) made provision for a further eight almshouses. Over the years this group has undergone extensive alterations and today consists of four flats and four houses, which are collectively known as Horwood Paiges.

Detailed history about Barnstaple Municipal Charities and the Almshouses can be found on the charity website www.barnstaplealmshouses.co.uk

Constitution

Barnstaple Municipal Charities is a registered charity governed by a Charity Commission Scheme – registered charity number 204460.

Management

The charity is governed by a board of voluntary local trustees. Day to day management of the charities affairs are delegated to The Charity Co-ordinator assisted by the Caretakers.

The Almshouses

The charity manages unfurnished dwellings which are designed for occupation by single people or couples who are capable of independent living. The principle behind everything that the charity does is that residents should enjoy independence and the freedom to come and go as they please whilst living in comfortable and secure accommodation. Residents should feel comfortable in the knowledge that support is available should the need arise. Above all, the charity respects resident's privacy.

Routine Visits

New residents will be visited by two trustees or representatives of the charity after you have settled in and thereafter from time to time. This is an opportunity to get to know you better and to address any concerns and issues. A mutually convenient time will be arranged beforehand.

HEALTH & SAFETY

Doctor & Dentist

If you do not have a General Practitioner (GP) the Caretaker will be able to give you the names of the local GP practices. The name of your GP must be given to the Caretaker. If you change your GP please make sure that you provide the new information to the Caretaker.

If you have a chronic health problem we advise that you tell the Caretaker so that appropriate action may be taken in the event of an emergency.

There are a few NHS dentists in Barnstaple, you will be able to find advice of registering with a dentist at The Citizens Advice Bureau.

Emergency Call Alarm Systems

If you have been given an emergency alarm pendant to wear by your GP, please wear it at all times. If you fall and need assistance you may not be able to reach the help button to gain the help needed.

Emergency Contact Details / Next of Kin

If you become ill or are in difficulties, the Charity Co-ordinator will make every effort to get in touch with your next of kin, your doctor or the ambulance or social services on your behalf.

It is important that you let the Charity Co-ordinator have details (name, address and telephone number) of these essential contacts. If the details change please remember to inform the Charity Co-ordinator.

Mobility Policy

It is a requirement of occupancy that all residents live independently in their almshouse. For reasons of safety it is essential that all residents are able to evacuate the almshouses in the event of an emergency, independently, and without putting others at risk. If mobility is slightly impaired residents are required to purchase their own mobility aids to ensure their own safety. In the event of immobility, the charity will commence the procedure of setting aside an appointment for safety reasons. If this is the case every possible method of working with family and carers will be taken by the charity.

An overview of mobility will form part of the annual inspection by trustees.

Fire Precautions

The almshouses comply with the appropriate fire regulations. The fire policies are frequently reviewed. Fire drills will be held six monthly to ensure that every resident knows what to do and where to go in the event of an emergency.

All of the almshouses are fitted with smoke and heat detectors which on sensing heat/smoke will trigger the fire alarm.

The detectors are on a time delay, if your alarm sounds by mistake, you are able to reset the detector by pressing the button on top of the device. Please familiarise yourself with this procedure. If you are unable to reach the detectors please see the Caretaker who will provide you with an aid.

The detectors are serviced annually and the battery will be checked. If the detector battery starts to chirp it is signifying expiry of the battery life. The Trustees are responsible for changing the battery, please ask the Caretaker for assistance if required.

Evacuation Policy

Due to the age and fragility of the building there is a TOTAL EVACUATION policy in the event of a fire. When you hear the fire alarm, you must follow the fire procedure (Appendix I). If it is safe to do so please evacuate the building by the nearest route to the fire assembly point. There are fire escapes on each floor. Shut the door of your almshouse behind you and do not attempt to take any personal belongings with you. Wear warm clothes if possible and leave your almshouse immediately.

The fire alarm is tested every Monday evening between 4pm – 6pm.

Avoiding the risk of fire or fire spreading

Please be conscious of the risk of fire as these building are over 350 years old and are therefore not made of modern materials.

Each almshouse is provided with a fire blanket which must be kept in the kitchen in an available position.

Recommendations to minimise the risk of fire:

- Check that all appliances are switched off at night
- Avoid blocking fire doors and stairs
- Always keep the fire doors closed
- Do not leave chip fryers or frying pans unattended
- Do not place clothes near electric fire
- When charging electronic items such as ipad or i-phones, do not leave the item on soft material as the heat from such electrical equipment can cause fire.

- Avoid the usage of multiple electric adapters in a single wall socket. (low amperage connections such as radio, TV and DVD's are the safe exception)
- Avoid covering or interfering with the smoke/heat detectors
- Avoid storing any unnecessary flammable substances or liquids in your almshouse.
- Please avoid storing any flammable items in the external cupboard in the southern entrance passage.

Due to the extreme risk the following are not permitted in the almshouses:

- Smoking
- The use of candles or naked flames for heating or lighting.
- Portable gas fires.
- Mobility Scooters.

Please ensure that all electric fires comply with modern safety standards.

Hoarding

Hoarding and over cluttering provides a fire hazard in an almshouse therefore creates a fire risk. Residents are asked not to hoard personal effects in the almshouses or maintain unnecessary clutter. If a resident a tendency to hoard the trustees will request that they receive a Home Fire Safety Check by the local fire Services.

It is the responsibility of each resident to ensure that they are able to evacuate their almshouse independently and swiftly. These provisions may not rely on neighbours or The Caretaker. If Trustees suspect that a resident is unable to evacuate swiftly they will be asked to make better arrangements for their mobility.

Slips, Trips and Falls

The trustees need to draw your attention to the need to exercise caution when using the footpaths in wet, snowy or icy weather. Please take care when crossing the courtyards as the cobbles are uneven.

Security

Security on site is taken extremely seriously. Please consider the following:

Do

- Keep your access door(s) locked at all times.
- Use the spy hole in the front door to identify callers.

- Use the chain to open the door a few inches when identifying callers. Avoid the chain being kept in permanent use as this may prevent access in an emergency.
- Be aware of bogus officials or doorstep salesmen. Always ask for proof of identity.

Do Not

- Do not allow a stranger to enter your home without proof of identity and if unsure, direct the person to the Caretaker's house.
- Leave ground floor windows open so that intruders can gain access
- Keep cash or valuables in your residency.
- Give any other person your key.
- Leave your keys in your almshouse door, even for a moment.
- Leave your keys in the lock on the inside of the door, as they may prevent entry in the event of an emergency.

The main doors are closed from 6pm until 7am each day for your security, each resident is provided with a key. Please observe the following during this time:

- When coming and going please ensure that you lock the door after yourself and avoid the door slamming to respect the peace of the other residents.
- Please open the door to your own visitors when they call and escort them off the premises when leaving.

At Penrose, the rear gates of the allotment giving access to Trinity Street are fitted with a Yale type lock. If you use this access, please ensure the gates are LOCKED AT ALL TIMES to prevent unauthorised entry during the day.

Keys

Residents are issued with keys to their own almshouses and the front doors. The Caretaker holds a master key which can open your front door. This will only be used in an emergency or with your permission.

You may not fit locks and chains without the trustee's consent as they may delay access by the emergency services.

Your privacy will be respected. The Caretaker has strict instructions only to enter your home:

- If you have asked him or her to do so
- If you have given permission for work to be done in your absence
- In an emergency.

Please do not obtain extra keys without first asking the trustees through the Charity Coordinator, as this may lessen security.

Make sure that you and your visitors check that the main front door to your almshouse is securely shut after entry or exit.

Stopcock

Each Almshouses has an individual stopcock. Please could residents turn of their water when leaving their almshouse for more than 24 hours. The main stopcocks for the site are: Penrose x 3 located in the road directly outside the almshouses

Horwood Paiges x 1 in Church Lane.

Loft Access

If you have a loft access in your almshouse, please be aware that the ceilings are made of lathe and plaster. No items may be stored in the loft as they present a fire hazard and are a danger to the fragile ceilings.

Legionnaires Disease

To avoid Legionnaires Disease residents are advised to fully clean their showerhead at least once every three months. Please consult the Caretaker if you have any difficulties with this.

TERMS OF OCCUPANCY

Letter of Appointment

Your Letter of Appointment, of which you have a copy, explains that you occupy the almshouses as a beneficiary of the charity. This means that you are not a tenant with the security of tenure that a tenancy offers and that in exceptional circumstances the trustees could ask you to find alternative accommodation and leave. In practice, this occurs vary rarely when trustees believe they have no alternative.

Examples of such circumstances are if:

- A resident is no longer able to look after themselves or to live independently, even with the help of family or social services.
- The resident consistently fails to pay weekly Maintenance Contributions (WMC) on a regular basis without good reason
- The resident's behaviour is deemed to be unreasonable and anti-social, either in respect of other residents', trustees or members of staff
- The resident's circumstances change significantly to the extent that they are no longer qualified to live in the almshouse as a beneficiary.

It is the condition of occupancy that residents provide the charity with accurate and complete information of their financial circumstances and that residents inform the charity if their circumstances change. However, residents should be assured that only in the most unusual circumstances would this lead to someone being asked to leave.

The charity would only terminate residency as a last resort after every effort had been made to resolve an issue. If having been asked to leave, a resident felt aggrieved, they have the right to have their case heard in the County Court. If the decision is set aside the appointment was upheld, they would be given every assistance to find alternative accommodation.

Weekly Maintenance Contributions

Weekly Maintenance contributions are payable in advance on the first of each month (new residents) by direct debit cash or cheque.

If you receive Housing Benefit from the local authority, arrangements can be made for your Housing Benefit to be paid directly into the charity's account. If you are experiencing any difficulties claiming please let the charity Co-ordinator know and assistance will be provided.

Weekly Maintenance Contributions are determined by the Trustees. The Trustees ask the Fair Rent Officer from the local authority to come bi-annually and give an indication of a fair market rent. The Trustees then calculate a discount from the recommended market rent to determine the WMC. The amount you pay is a contribution towards:

- Building repairs and maintenance
- Service cost for communal areas
- Cleaning Communal areas
- Decoration Cost
- Management Costs
- Insurance
- Provision of Fixtures and Fittings.

Annual Trustee Inspections

An inspection of your almshouse will be made by two trustees annually. The purpose of the inspection is to give you the opportunity to talk to a trustee about any concerns with your almshouses, for the trustee to assess any maintenance which may need attending and to review that the correct health and safety/ fire precautions are being adhered to.

You will be notified in advance of the inspection date.

You will also be notified in writing of any action that is required on your behalf.

Consulting Residents

The Trustees hold an annual meeting in July to discuss the running of the almshouses with you and your neighbours. Consultation with residents on new policies and procedures regarding the day to day running is a form of participation which will benefit all concerned.

You are welcome to talk to the Charity Co-ordinator privately, please ask the Caretaker or Charity Co-ordinator to arrange this if you wish.

Trustees welcome the residents view on matters affecting their quality of life at the almshouses

You will be consulted:

- Before any work is done on your almshouse (except in an emergency)
- Before making changes to the communal facilities including the gardens
- Before making changes to the amount of WMC payable
- Before anyone enters your home

Under the charities governing mandate, beneficiaries may not become trustees.

Absence from the almshouses

If you go away, please inform the Charity Co-ordinator of your temporary address and contact phone number.

Should you return earlier than planned please inform the Caretaker immediately you get home as it is important in an emergency to know who is on-site.

You are expected to be in full time occupancy of your almshouse and extended periods away during the year may lead the trustees to conclude that you have less need for the almshouse accommodation than others.

Notice required for planned absence from your dwelling:

- Up to 7 days – Please inform the Caretaker
- More than 7 days – Please inform the Charity Co-ordinator in writing. This will enable the Trustees to ensure that your almshouse is safe and correctly maintained whilst you are away.

Trustees reserve the right to plan maintenance in your almshouse whilst you are away.

Before going away please ensure that all food has been put away, taps and appliances have been fully switched off and windows shut. If you are leaving your almshouse during the winter months, please discuss with the Caretaker how much heating is required to minimise the risk of burst pipes.

Utilities - Central Heating, Electricity and Hot Water.

The Central Heating is provided by a communal gas boiler on each site. The timing of the heating is agreed by majority consensus from the residents which is the fairest way.

The heating is a basic provision and residents can regulate their own almshouse temperature by adjusting their radiators if too hot, or by using electrical heaters if too cold. In this way those that require more heating do not do so at the expense of others and are able to independently regulate and pay for their additional requirements.

In periods of exceptional sub-zero temperatures, the heating is turned on for 24 hours a day.

Radiators are fitted with a valve which enables residents to adjust the temperature as required. All taps are fitted with thermostats to avoid water scalding.

Utility Charges - Gas, Water and Communal Electricity

The Gas, Water Rates and Communal Electricity Costs are paid at the time by the charity and passed back to residents on an annual in arrears basis. This sum is added to the Resident's Contributions to make the Weekly Maintenance Contribution figure.

Utility - Charges Electricity

Residents are responsible for paying their own electricity.

Extractor Fans

Residents are advised to regularly clean the extractor fans in the bathrooms. This will ensure the flow of air and avoid the build-up of condensation resulting in mould in the bathroom.

Improvements to your home

You may not carry out any improvements alterations, repairs or decorations to your home without first discussing your plans with the Charity Co-ordinator. For all major works, the trustees will instruct an architect or surveyor to design and plan work before placing an order with a building contractor. Payment for improvement is the responsibility of the Trustees.

Painting schemes for the almshouses are approved in neutral colours only, your co-operation is appreciated.

As the trustees have responsibility for the long term maintenance of the almshouses, they have to consider individual residents request for alterations alongside their own maintenance programme. If an alteration would be structurally unsound, reduce the amenities for subsequent occupants, or increase future maintenance cost, it will not be approved. Please bear in mind that you live in a listed building and some alterations will have to be approved by the local authority before any work can be carried out.

Employment

Neither the almshouse nor its garden may be used as a place of business, either from where to conduct a business or to store items connected with running a business.

Additional Occupants

You are not permitted to allow any person to live within the boundaries of your almshouse without agreement from the Trustees.

Pets

The trustees will have explained the No Pets policy to you at interview and before you move in.

In exceptional circumstances the policy is relaxed to allow a new resident to retain an existing pet, however no additional or replacement pets will be permitted.

Moving Out

If you wish to leave the almshouses you must give the Trustees written notice of at least 4 weeks. During this notice you will be liable for your Residential Contributions, even if you have already moved out.

Residents are responsible for WMC until the premises are cleared of personal possessions and the keys are returned.

If a resident were to leave their almshouses dwelling without giving notice you will be liable for WMC payments even if you have already moved out until the end of the notice period. Weekly Maintenance Contributions should be paid up to the departure date, as well as utility bills.

In the event of a death, executors or families, are asked to give four weeks' notice which we hope will allow you enough time to pack personal belongings and make removal arrangements. During the notice period the estate is responsible for Weekly Maintenance Contributions and Utility Contributions. Some of this may have already been paid in advance and the Charity Coordinator will be able to support in this matter.

Trustees have the right to start the process of Setting Aside the Appointment in the event of non-payment of WMC.

Re-Housing

If in the opinion of the Trustees you are considered to be unable to care for yourself, the Trustees may require you to move from the almshouses to more suitable accommodation, so you can be properly cared for. In this event your family or Social Services will be involved.

The Trustees may require you to move to another almshouse if major repair work is to be carried out, or some other unforeseen circumstance. Your views would be taken into account and you would be given the maximum notice possible and a minimum of one months' notice should a move be necessary.

Transferring Residency

Transferring residents is discouraged. In exceptional medical circumstances where alternative almshouses accommodation can be proven to be more suitable an application to transfer can be made to the Charity Co-ordinator in writing with a supporting letter from your doctor.

Gifts and Legacies

Council Tax and Council Tax benefit

You are responsible for paying your own Council Tax and will receive the annual Council Tax notice from the council in March each year. People living alone are entitled to 25% discount.

If your income consists of the basic retirement pension and you only have modest savings, you may be entitled to Council Tax Benefit. Depending upon your precise circumstances, this could pay your council tax in whole or in part.

Housing Benefit/Local Housing Allowance/Universal Credit

If your income consists of the basic retirement pension and you have little or no capital, you will almost certainly be entitled to Housing Benefit or Local Housing Allowance to help with your housing costs. Even if you do have income in addition to your basic retirement pension, you may still be entitled to some help with housing costs. To claim Housing Benefit/ Local Housing Allowance you should ask for an application for from your local Housing Benefit office (DWP) or Housing Department. It is important that you inform your local benefits office if there are changes in your financial circumstances as they have the power to demand reimbursement in the event of over payment.

Eligibility for state benefits change from time to time. If you need advice please ask the Charity Co-ordinator in the first instance as he/she will have some experience of entitlement and benefits. Other sources of information are the Citizens Advice Bureau and Age UK.

It is the policy of the charity to provide two authorised signatures on any required benefit documentation initiated from the charity.

Parking

There is no parking facilities on the almshouse site, however there are local authority car parks nearby.

There is a policy of allowing overnight visitor parking for one at Penrose which is managed by the Caretakers. Priority for parking will be given to relatives visiting to support a convalescing resident.

Wills

You are strongly advised to make a will and it is best to ask a solicitor to help with this. If you need help finding one the local Citizens Advice Bureau will be able to provide names.

Lasting Power of Attorney

You may consider it wise to set up a Lasting Power of Attorney which allows you to appoint someone to look after your finances and to take welfare and healthcare decisions on your behalf in the event of your mental capacity diminishing. You should seek the advice of a solicitor on this matter.

Newsletter

A Residents newsletter is published twice a year by the Charity. This provides information on events both at the almshouses and within the area. Residents are welcome to contribute articles and will find useful information and advice about living at the almshouses and changes in policy when necessary.

Social Activities

A welcome sense of community can result from residents taking part in activities together. Friendships grow and there is a greater readiness to support one another through difficult times. We find that some residents enjoy occasional opportunities to do things together, whilst others prefer to pursue their own interests on their own. There is no pressure therefore to take part in the organised activities, however the trustees organise an annual Christmas Carol Service in the Chapel, occasional day trips and Afternoon Tea events.

Social Media

Those residents using social media such as Facebook and twitter are asked to respect the fact that no views should be expressed via social media about the charity, its trustees, other residents or staff.

PROBLEMS

Personal Problems

If you have any personal problems over money or any other matters and you have no family or friends whom you feel able to consult, the trustees will be pleased to help or offer advice if they can. You can ask to see the Charity Co-ordinator or any trustee and your concerns will be treated in the utmost confidence.

Complaints

If you have any concerns, please bring them to the attention of the Charity Co-ordinator who will do his/her best to resolve them. In the majority of cases, minor issues can be dealt with informally, quickly and efficiently and to the resident's satisfaction. The Trustees and the Charity Co-ordinator can only resolve problems and improve the service if you speak up when things go wrong.

If you have a complaint or a problem arises that cannot readily be resolved by discussion, the following complaints procedure shall be followed.

- Minor matters, such as small maintenance items should be referred to the Caretaker as they arise. These should be dealt with within a reasonable time and if not, you should inform the Charity Co-ordinator.
- If the Caretaker is unable to resolve the issue or there is a persistent problem e.g., loud noise or matters affecting health and safety, you should refer these in writing to the Charity Co-ordinator. The Trustees wish to emphasise any communication will be treated as confidential.

Handling Complaints

If you are not satisfied by the procedure above and you have a complaint about a member of staff employed by the charity, trustee, other residents, a charity policy, or about a serious breach of health and safety regulations, you should put your complaint in writing to the Chairman of Trustees, with a formal request for it to be considered by the Trustees at their next meeting.

The Residents Committee will formally meet to discuss your complaint. You will be notified of the date that your complaint is being heard and be entitled to attend, accompanied by a friend, advocate or professional adviser if you wish.

The chairman of the committee will write to you afterwards to advise you of the trustees' decision and to inform you of any action taken to resolve your complaint.

Complaints Made Against you

The Trustees take all complaints seriously. If a complaint is made against you that has not been resolved by discussion or intervention from the Charity Co-ordinator the following procedure will apply.

You will be informed of the complaint and The Residents Committee will formally meet to discuss the issue. You will be notified of the date that your complaint is being heard and be entitled to attend, accompanied by a friend, advocate or professional adviser if you wish.

The Trustees will consider all aspects of the complaint and you will be able to present your own case.

After the Trustees have investigated the circumstances you will be asked to withdraw whilst they conclude their findings. In the event of the trustees requiring additional time you will be notified in writing of their decision within seven working days.

You be notified of the Trustees decision as swiftly as possible.

In rare circumstances where a complaint is severe or unresolvable the resolution may be that you are requested to find alternative accommodation.

Appeals

For all complaints if you remain dissatisfied after a your complaint has been referred to the residents Committee, you are entitled to request that the complaint be heard again by the Appeals Committee. You will be notified of the date that your complaint is being heard and be entitled to attend, accompanied by a friend, advocate or professional adviser if you wish. The decision of the Appeals committee is final and you will be informed of any action taken.

Housing Ombudsman

If you remain dissatisfied with the trustees' decision, you have the right to take your complaint to the Housing Ombudsman Service whose address is:

Housing Ombudsman Service 81 Aldwych, London WC2B 4HN

Telephone: 0300 111 3000

Email: info@housing-ombudsman.org.uk.

You will need to give the Ombudsman your full name, address and telephone number and set out the details of your complaint. The Ombudsman will only be able to consider your complaint if he/she is satisfied that the trust's own procedure for handling complaints has been exhausted.
